Hospitality Training Trust (HTT) – 2022 Grant Application Information

Do you have:

- a great project you would like to see adopted in the hospitality sector?
- an outstanding trainee who would benefit from specific training?
- a project related to hospitality/tourism/training?
- an industry Covid-19 recovery project?

HTT was set up to encourage and support training in the sector. Previous grants have included:

- Training for completion of judging qualifications
- Workshop – Taking the leap from school to a career in hospitality
- School holiday training programmes for cafe cooking and serving
- PDP for young leaders in tourism.
- Support pre-employment training & youth development for youths at risk.
- Cheesemaker Award & Cheesemaker of the Year
- Support of an online hospitality training platform

The Trust has funds available for distribution to associations, businesses or individuals for projects that will further the aims and criteria of the Trust around building excellence across the hospitality sector.

If you have a great project that fits these criteria, please complete the online application form.

Applications close on 22 April 2022.
